Dear Friends and Colleagues!

It is a great honor and a privilege to invite you to VII Moscow Courses on Pediatric Neurosurgery — 2016. Society for Pediatric Neurosurgery (RSPN) together with International Society for Pediatric Neurosurgery (ISPN) continue the International Courses. This year the Courses are also supported by ESPN and cover the topics related to “Emergencies in Pediatric Neurosurgery”.

The best specialists from Europe and Russia will present lectures, and take part in seminars and hand-ons.

The program will consist of two parts.

First 2 days (22–23 November) are devoted to hand-ons on the working places (not more then 2 persons for one place with a tutor) equipped with microscopes, endoscopes, microsurgical instruments and special models. These days are devoted to approaches to deep seated tumors and microsurgical anatomy of brain. Video presentations will be continued by all types of craniotomy tried on the special models of skulls with traditional drill systems. The study of brain anatomy will be started on systems. The study of brain anatomy will be started on the live surgery.

An official language of this part of courses is English. The number of participants is limited due to the number of working places.

The second part of Courses (24–25 November) is presented by lectures and seminars. The lectures cover the most important states related to acute hydrocephalus, trauma, haemorrhages, including IVH in the preterms, ruptured Spina bifida, shunt infections, acute neurotrauma, raised ICP, decompressive craniectomy and other situations which a neurosurgeon face in his everyday practice.

The speaking languages of this part - English and Russian with bidirectional simultaneous translation. The number of participants is unlimited.

In the afternoon the seminars with case-based discussions will take place in smaller groups.

The Course will take place from November 22 to November 25, 2016 in the Burdenko Neurosurgical Institute and Moscow Institute for Pediatric Emergency Surgery which are both situated just in the center of Moscow.

All the information about the Courses will appear on this site!

We look forward to welcoming you all in Russia!
