

EANS Research Course 2019

Berlin, Germany
28th February 2019

Preliminary programme

BLOCK 1 – INTRODUCTION TO NEUROSURGICAL RESEARCH

10.00 – 10.05	Introduction to the Research Course	Rola
10.05 – 10.20	Lecture: Introduction to Neurosurgical Research	Grotenhuis

BLOCK 2 – HOW TO PREPARE FOR APPLICATION

10.20 – 10.35	Lecture: How to apply for EANS Research Fund	Hutchinson
10.35 – 10.50	Lecture: How do I win EANS Research Prize	Rabiei

BLOCK 3 – RESEARCH QUESTION

10.50 – 11.10	Lecture: Why translation from the lab bench to clinical fails: failures in experimental setup (Experimental Neurology Berlin)	Ulrich Dirnagl
---------------	---	----------------

11.10 – 12.10	Workshop 1: Critical Review of a Paper/Trial <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Short report/paper send to all participants 2 weeks prior to meeting• Attendees will perform a critical review of a given paper following the guidelines presented.	Korja/Pallaud
---------------	---	---------------

12.10 – 12.40	Lunch
---------------	-------	--

12.40 – 13.00	Lecture: Design of randomized controlled trials – reasons for success and failure	Werner Hacke
---------------	---	--------------

13.00 – 14.00	Workshop 2: How to Define a Hypothesis <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Attendees will define their research question and describe a hypothesis related to their own research proposal – all are invited to bring their own studies	Danilov/ Berkelbach van der Sprenkel
---------------	--	--

BLOCK 4 – HOW TO WRITE A PROJECT

14.00 – 15.00	Workshop 3: How to Write a Project <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Attendees will draft a research project of their own or related to the topic presented – based on the research question defined in the Workshop 2	Rola/ Chatzistiriou
---------------	--	------------------------

15.00 – 15.15	Coffee Break
---------------	--------------	--

BLOCK 5 – HOW TO PRESENT THE STUDY

15.15 – 15.30	Lecture: How Do I Submit a Paper	Guy
15.30 – 15.45	Lecture: Why Was My Manuscript Rejected? – a reviewer perspective	Bello
15.45 – 16.30	Workshop 4 How to Make an Oral Presentation • Two attendees will deliver an oral presentation based on the topics sent to participants 2 weeks prior to the meeting	Ringel/Rabiei
16.30 – 16.45	Coffee Break
16.45 – 18.15	Presentations by the shortlisted 2019 Aesculap EANS Research Prize candidates
18.15	Close of the Meeting	